1 Vitamin

Guangji Pharm said on October 23 that the liver protection and anti-fatigue functional beverage has completed product development, and Guangji Health Technology Company will fully promote the listing; Hubei Guangji Health Technology Co., Ltd. currently produces five listed health products: Kudzu Hovenia soft capsule, Coenzyme Q10 soft capsule, blueberry lutein ester soft candy, B vitamin tablets, blueberry lutein β -carotene soft capsule.

2 Amino Acids | Valine

Valine: Recently, the quotation of domestic factories has been lowered, the export of USD2.4-2.5/KG is between, the market turnover is general, and the end user is relatively cautious in replenishing. It is expected that the market price of valine will be weak in the later stage, and the factory inventory will be concerned.

3 API | Paracetamol

Affected by the upstream cost of nitrate and ice vinegar and the market, the price is rising, the transaction heat has increased, the domestic mainstream manufacturers offer prices at USD3.95-4.2/KG, the current transaction price has an upward trend, and the follow-up continues to pay attention to the market.

4 Food Additives | Potassium sorbate

Affected by market demand, the price of potassium sorbate has stabilized, and the transaction price in the export market is about USD2.5-2.7/KG. The possibility of subsequent price declines is small, and we will continue to pay attention to the market.
